

AMBIT Unconference 2016

Winners of the Guardian/Virgin Media Innovation Nation award

2nd June 2016

The Anna Freud Centre

Facilitators:
Dickon Bevington
Liz Cracknell
Peter Fuggle

Standard Fee: £25 per person
60 places available

This year we decided to change things up a bit, and would like to welcome you to our AMBIT Unconference.

Wikipedia defines an unconference as: “..a wide range of gatherings that try to avoid one or more aspects of a conventional conference, such as fees, sponsored presentations, and top-down organization”¹.

What AMBIT is - a flexible, dynamic approach which enables users to adapt the wheel in a wide range of contexts and ways of working. What AMBIT is not - a rigid, stagnant model which defines and limits your capacity to do your job by suggesting restrictions on your preferred way of working. So let's be more AMBIT!

This is an opportunity to shape the programme on the day. Bring along your experiences, ideas and questions - the day is what you make it!

How Does It Work?

1. Book your place! There are only 60 places available so please visit our website <http://www.annafreud.org/training-research/training-and-conferences-overview>
2. Show up on the day! (2nd June 2016)

It's as easy as that! Visit our Trainings and Conferences website for more information. Alternatively contact our AMBIT Coordinator:
