

Privacy Notice: Training, Conferences and Events

This privacy notice explains how the Anna Freud National Centre for Children and Families (AFNCCF, 'we', 'our', 'us') collects, uses and shares personal data of people who apply to attend training and conferences organised or provided or the AFNCCF ('you', 'your'). Your personal data will be processed as set out in this notice.

If you have any questions about this notice, or the use of your personal data you can contact our Training team (billie.delaney@annafreud.org) or the Data Protection Officer (DPO@annafreud.org).

AFNCCF is a Data Controller in terms of Article 4 of the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679. We collect and process information about your application and or enquiries (your personal data) in electronic form, during the application process.

Sharing your personal data with others

The application information is gathered directly by us and processed in-house. Payment information is gathered and processed by Barclays. A link to their privacy notice can be found here.

Where you successfully complete a training course and become eligible to be added to a professional register we will share your details with the relevant body.

Where we provide training on behalf of a commissioner, they will share your details with us, so we can retain a record of all attendees. Where you agree they will also share your contact details for marketing purposes.

International transfers

Our IT Support company may provide support from outside the European Economic Area, which may result in personal data being accessed from outside the EEA. We have a contract in place to ensure this is legally compliant and secure.

How long your personal data is kept

Training/conference/event applicant:

If you have successfully, or unsuccessfully, attempted to register for one of our trainings or events, the information you have entered will be kept on file for 2 years in case any query should arise from your booking. After 2 years from the training/event date, all registration information will be deleted.

Training/conference/event attendee:

If you have attended a training or event with us, your name will be held on record indefinitely so that we can confirm your accreditation and reissue your certificate(s) to you upon request. All other data submitted to us will not be held on file after two years (see above) unless you have opted in to our training mailings. If you have opted in to training mailings, your name, email address, town, country, sector and profession will be held on your record until you withdraw consent to be contacted by us.

Enquirer:

Your name, contact details, and the nature of your enquiry will be kept on file until the enquiry is closed.

Newsletter recipient:

Your personal data will be kept on file until you withdraw consent to be contacted with our newsletter. Should you withdraw consent to be contacted, only your name and training or events that you have attended will be kept on file for certification purposes; any other information we hold on you will be deleted. If you have never attended one of our trainings or events, all of your personal data will be deleted from our file.

Accreditation and application forms:

For some of our trainings, you will need to submit an application form with supporting evidence for processing (i.e. DIT or IPT). To apply for formal accreditation in some of our trainings, you will need to submit an application with supporting evidence for approval. These application forms will be kept on file as evidence until accreditation is approved in the modality, or until five years has passed since the form was submitted – whichever occurs first.

Your rights and further information

You have rights with regard to your personal data which vary according to the lawful basis for use:

1. The right to be informed, this privacy notice tells you how we will use your data.
2. The right of access – you can ask us for a copy of the data we hold on you, this is called a subject access request and you can send such requests to DPO@annafreud.org or call 020 7794 2313.
3. The right to rectification – you can ask us to correct inaccuracies in your data.
4. The right to erasure – in certain circumstances you can ask us to delete your data.
5. The right to restrict processing – in certain circumstances you can ask us to stop processing your data.
6. The right to data portability – you can ask for an easily transferable copy of your data.
7. The right to object – you can object to our processing of your data, particularly where we rely upon your consent to do so.
8. Rights in relation to automated decision making and profiling – we don't use these processes in recruitment.

You can read more about data rights on the Information Commissioner's website (<https://ico.org.uk/your-data-matters/>)
